Radiation Hazard Statement

This application has been reviewed to determine if it complies with the radiation standards and the limits of radiation to which persons would be exposed in the area immediately around the tower base. The radiation, (the algebraic sum of both the horizontal and vertical components), is 50 kw. The ANSI standards that have been published indicate that the radius to the 1 mw/cm<sup>2</sup> contour, under worst case conditions is approximately 41 meters. The antenna will be mounted on the tower with the center of radiation 84 meters above ground level. The base of the tower will be enclosed by fence so as to restrict access to the base of the tower. The tower site is located north of Stanley, Louisiana, in an area that is not being utilized for residential construction. The nearest permanent residence is some distance away, therefore, the site will only be accessible to a limited number of persons. Radiation warning signs will be placed at a number of locations on the fence enclosing the site. The applicant will advise maintenance personnel that power is to be reduced prior to undertaking any tower or transmitter site maintenance.
